2. What our legal basis for processing your data is:

We collect this information to enable BHCC to perform its statutory duties under the Childcare Act 2006. The Childcare Act 2006 details the statutory responsibilities, details and guidance for Children's Centres providing services for families with young children.

3. How long we hold your information for:

All financial records we hold about you will be kept for seven years. Your child's record will be held in secure storage until the end of the academic year seven years after leaving BHCC, or the age of 21 if there has been any SEND or Child Protection involvement.

4. How we use your information:

The information you have provided will be stored in locked cabinets (paper format) and on our network (digitally). Access to the data is restricted to staff on a 'need to know' basis, specifically those involved in the planning, delivering and monitoring of services provided for families with young children.

The information will also be used to plan what services should be available in your local area and to contact you to invite you to attend appropriate services to support you and your family.

For families using our day-care or holiday club your information will also be used to manage, collect and recover money that is owed to us for chargeable services.

5. Who we may disclose your information to and why:

The information you have provided will be shared with key partners, such as health visitors, social workers, and other professionals if we have a concern about you or your child's welfare. We will also share your information with your child's Primary School during their transition to school.

This information is shared to enable all agencies who are supporting children and their families to work together to provide services to best meet the needs of families.

6. The right to withdraw consent at any time where relevant:

Where we process your information on the basis of consent you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time but this will not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before it is withdrawn.

7. Your rights as the data subject:

You have the right to request access to your data and where data is found to be inaccurate to have that data corrected. In certain circumstances you have the right to have data held about you erased, or the use of it restricted, to object to processing as well as the right to have your data transferred to another data controller.

8. Access to your information:

You can ask to see what information we hold about you and have access to it. You can do this by contacting Data Protection Officer, Brentry and Henbury Children's Centre, Brentry Lane, Brentry, Bristol, BS10 6RG.

9. The right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority:

You also have the right to object to the processing of your information and to have any inaccurate information corrected. You also have a right of complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) at www.ico.org.uk if you think we have dealt with your information in an inappropriate manner.
